

GREENFIELD

STAFF PHOTO/PAUL FRANZ

Ghouls and witches abound on Halloween in Greenfield.

Demons, dinos and dogs, oh my!

Families fill streets with creative costumes for parade, trick-or-treating

By MARY BYRNE
Staff Writer

GREENFIELD — Witches and wizards, angels and demons, superheroes and cartoon characters filled the downtown area on Tuesday evening for the city's annual Halloween festivities. "It's always so uplifting to see the streets filled with families and friends from around Franklin County," said Recreation Director Christy Moore. "There's even people here from the hilltowns." While it was a slower start than in past years, she said, Main Street soon filled with trick-or-treaters, making their way from business to business. Twenty storefronts participated in the event.

SEE HALLOWEEN A8

Creatures and dragons walk the streets of Greenfield on Halloween.

STAFF PHOTO/PAUL FRANZ

Good turnout for Greenfield Halloween events

HALLOWEEN FROM A1

“The [Greenfield Business Association] did a great job reaching out to try to get more involvement,” Moore said.

For 9-year-old Emma Fitzpatrick, who dressed up as the cartoon character Scooby-Doo, the best part of the night was “seeing all the costumes.” The Halloween party at school earlier in the day was fun, too. Emma was accompanied by her parents Mark Fitzpatrick, dressed as Shaggy, and Heather Greene, dressed as Daphne. Together, they walked in the rag shag parade, which made its way from Mohawk Mall to Energy Park for the costume contest.

Dawning the outfit of Hermione Granger, the fictional witch in the “Harry Potter” series, Sequoia Richard, 10, said the best part of the night was the opportunity to dress up. The candy, of course, was also a highlight.

“The creativity is very exciting,” Moore said of the costumes seen downtown. “There’s rarely duplicates.”

In addition to trick-or-treating, the rag shag parade and a costume contest, the Garden Cinemas hosted a free showing of the 1966 film “It’s the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown.” Franklin County’s YMCA hosted a “spooktacular” family fun night.

Rag Shag Costume Contest

Best Homemade

- First Place: Jack Chamberlain (Vermont).
- Second Place: Toby Campbell (Easy Mac).

Funniest

- First Place: Liam Lewkowicz (banana).

Walking like an Egyptian on Halloween in Greenfield.

STAFF PHOTO/PAUL FRANZ

Scariest

- First Place: Zander Felix (Grim Reaper).
- Second Place: Isabella Diaz (Wednesday Addams).

Cutest

- First Place: Elyse Merrill (Dalmatian and fire truck).
- Second Place: Contestant No. 409 (bat).

Best Cartoon Character

- First Place: Lily & Brickett Allis (Curious George).
- Second Place: Mykal Bloom (Bowser).

Adult Open Category

- First Place: Erin Anhalt (mom from “Mean Girls”).
- Second Place: Rosie Caine (Feather Lady).

Group/Family Category

- First Place: Meryl Latronica (storm).
- Second Place: Tina, Zuzu & Adam Rule (Tooth Fairy, bad tooth, baby tooth).

Greenfield resident Kay Lyons on her way to judge costumes on Halloween in Greenfield.

STAFF PHOTO/PAUL FRANZ

Howl-o-Ween Costume

- First Place: Bosch (Wonder Woman).

Reporter Mary Byrne can be reached at mbyrne@recorder.com or 413-930-4429. Twitter: @MaryEByrne.