GREENFIELD — The Recreation Department's Independence Day fireworks celebration, originally slated for Saturday, July 6, at Beacon Field, has been postponed to Sunday, July 7, the Mayor's Office announced on Friday.

Mayor's Office Communications Director Matthew Conway said the event is being postponed because of rain expected Saturday night. "We look forward to the fireworks lighting up the sky as we celebrate our nation's freedom with our community," Recreation Director Christy Moore said in a statement.

The schedule of performances remains the same, starting at 4 p.m. at Beacon Field on Sunday, July 7. The schedule is as follows:
